

BIOGRAPHICAL ESSAYS.

By H. T. TUCKER.

Price $1.75.
This volume contains thirty articles, comprising brief biographies and critical essays of some of the most eminent men of modern times. The work has been received with unusual favor, and has been commended by the highest authorities in the country.

PENMAN'S Monthly, in a carefully-considered notice, says: "We have found them all singularly graphic and interesting; for they are biographical, as well as critical, the material being selected from their own lives, and the treatment is consequently more vivid and interesting than any other." Believing that the volume is worthy of a place in every library, and that it will become a standard in our literature, the publishers commend it to the attention of the public.

HISTORIES OF REAL LIFE

In the CITY OF NEW YORK.

That has ever been published. The facts were gathered from

POLICE OFFICER,

Whose duties led him into the highways and byways amid the houses and poverty of this great city.

In the course of his travels he discovered Mrs. W.—

At one time placed in the position of a woman who was fortune's favorite, and whose smile was a ray of light to all around her, and find to-day, in the dark days of her life, a shadow over all her happiness.

The sad story which is here narrated furnishes a startling ill-lustration of the manners and morals of our great metropolis.

We believe that the author of this history has done a great service to the public.
